

Fire in Building Fails To Stop Women Bowlers

Undaunted by smoke and the clatter of firemen carrying apparatus into the building, several women continued to bowl during a fire in the Mather building, 918 G street northwest, yesterday afternoon.

The women, together with several men, were bowling in the alleys of the Recreation Health Center, which occupies part of the building. The fire was in the offices of a film distributing company on the seventh floor and was confined to a few rolls of film. Smoke from the burning film was heavy.

Estate Valued at $12,000.

Mrs. Fannie I. Matthews, who died May 1, left an estate valued at more than $12,000, according to the petition for letters testamentary filed yesterday in probate court by the executor, John W. Childress. The next of kin of the deceased are second cousins. The estate includes the premises at 2509 Seventeenth street northwest.
